

City of Brentwood Economic Development Business Resources

The City of Brentwood is actively monitoring regional, state and federal activities relating to the public health and economic impacts response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Given the rapidly evolving information and programs coming from multiple sources, the City's Economic Development Division will be providing any potential business and employee resources at the following webpage under the "Economic Development" section:

<https://www.brentwoodca.gov/about/covid19.asp>

Businesses and their employees will find information and programs on City's resource page including:

Small Business Loans
Economic Injury and Disaster Relief Loans for Business
Tax Payment Relief Programs
No-Cost Business Consultations

Employee Health & Safety Information

Programs for Affected Businesses and Employees Including Reduced Work Hours Program, Disability Insurance and Leave Programs for Caring for Sick Employees and Family Members, and Resources for Potential Layoffs.

The City of Brentwood Economic Development Division can also be reached with questions at EconomicDevelopment@brentwoodca.gov